FOREWORD

Once again an eventful year is brought to a close at Central Catholic. For the Seniors the end of the year means a final "good bye." For them, especially, life lies before them—young and hopeful. They will never walk alone; for Christ, their Companion and Friend, will stay with them along the way.

For all at Central it is the end of another school year.

The 1961 Crusader attempts to record memories for all to remember.

THE MOST REVEREND JOHN L. PASCHANG
Bishop of Grand Island

Bishop Paschang has shown a deep interest in the Central Catholic High School students and their activities throughout the 1960-'61 school year. For his prayers, his advice, and his kindness the students of Central say gratefully, "Thank you, Bishop!"

Right Reverend Monsignor Leo Keating
Pastor of St. Mary's Cathedral
and
Vicar General of the Diocese

Right Reverend Monsignor Anthony Egging
Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Parish
and
Diocesan Superintendent of Schools

Through the spiritual guidance of their pastors, Monsignor Keating and Monsignor Egging, and the assistant priests at St. Mary's and Blessed Sacrament, the students at Central have received much help to become true Catholic leaders.

To all the priests who say Mass, hear confessions, teach, and counsel, Central Catholic students give their grateful and prayerful thanks.

Silver Bells

out their delight

On June 6th of this year Msgr. Leo Keating will complete his first twenty-five years in the priesthood. The calibre of his work for God, His Church, the diocese and the Cathedral parish is well attested to by the fact that he has been honored by the Holy Father by having been made a Domestic Prelate, and by the Bishop of the Diocese of Grand Island by having been made the Vicar General of the Diocese and pastor of St. Mary's Cathedral parish.

We students of Central Catholic High School wish to pay particular tribute to Msgr. Keating for his interest in and unselfish work for Catholic Education in Grand Island during these twenty-five years.

Havig been appointed assistant at the Cathedral a bare six months after his ordination, four and a half years later administrator of that parish, and in 1947 its pastor, it is obvious that the growth and present place of prominence of the Catherdal parish is in large measure a living tribute to Msgr. Keating. And one of the most important parts of the Cathedral parish today is its school. Throughout these twenty-five years he has spent as much time in the classroom as his other duties would allow.

Finally and of paramount importance to us at Central Catholic, after having been superintendent of St. Mary's High School for many years, when it became evident that a Central Catholic High School would more efficiently serve the Catholic high school needs of the growing Grand Island area, he gave his own personal support and that of the Cathedral parish to the establishment and building of Central Catholic, without which support it could never have come into existence. His continued support of and interest in Central Catholic is one of the important factors in its continued growth in size and excellence.

For all that he is and for all he has done for the Church, but most especially for what he has done for Central Catholic and so for us, its students, we wish Msgr. Keating God's choicest blessings and graces and many more years in His service before joining Him for eternity.

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR LEO KEATING, V.G.

Golden Bells

a song of joy

It is our privilege to dedicate these pages of the 1961 Crusader to Reverend Mother Helena, C.S.J., as a tribute on the occasion of her Golden Jubilee as a Sister of Saint Joseph.

Reverend Mother Helena was missioned at St. Mary's Cathedral School, Grand Island, from 1912 to 1925 and again from 1938 to 1941. Since 1953 she has been Mother General of the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Concordia, Kansas.

As an expression of reverence and esteem for the noble work she has and is performing in God's service . . .

As a token of appreciation for her self-sacrifice and endless hours in laboring in God's service for fifty eventful years . . .

The faculty and students of Central Catholic wish to congratulate Reverend Mother Helena on her Golden Jubilee . . .

Congratulations!
and
A Very Prayerful

"God bless you always and in all ways."

IN MEMORIAM

SISTER VINCENT DE PAUL, C.S.J.

As this yearbook goes to press, we mourn the death of Sister Vincent de Paul who died November 22, 1960, after an illness of a few days. Although Sister is no longer in our midst, she will not die in the memory of her friends, or in their hearts, or in their prayers. She lives in the minds that know her and in the hearts that have been attracted by her personality and her teaching.

May the prayers of our readers accompany her to the throne of God and may He send us worthy replacements in her stead.

To Sister Vincent de Paul we prayerfully dedicate this page of the 1961 Crusader.

In the five years that Father Naugtin has been with us, we have grown to know him through the deep and personal interest he has shown in us and our activities.

To Father Naughtin we express a sincere appreciation for his paternal interest in all our school activities and his kind words of advice and counsel throughout the year.

We pray that God may continue to bless him with good health to carry on so great a work in the field of Catholic education. God bless your days at CCHS, Father!

The Reverend James Naughtin
Superintendent of CCHS

Dear Seniors of 1961—

Oscar Hammerstein II, who wrote the words which you have chosen for the theme of your yearbook—"You'll Never Walk Alone"—is now dead. His death, indeed, deprived the world of a true poetical, lyrical genius. However, he left a deep impression on society and his memory shall endure for centuries. I am confident he recognized early in life that God had given him a talent; that he would be held strictly accountable before God for the use of that talent, and he resolved to use that talent to his greaest ability to influence society for good.

It is our sincere hope that you seniors of the class of 1961 of Central Catholic will likewise examine yourselves very carefully as your days of high school come to a close; that you will determine what gifts (large and small) which have been given you by God; that you will recognize your serious moral responsibility of rendering a strict account of those talents before God; and that you will form a firm and lasting resolution to use those talents, not primarily for your own honor and glory, but for the honor and glory of God and the good influence on those with whom you come in contact. In keeping with the words of your theme, know also that if such be your resolve, then indeed will God's Assistance be ever with you and "You'll Never Walk Alone".

LINCOLN VOCAL MUSIC CLINIC

About 550 students from nine Nebraska parochial high schools participated in the third diocesan vocal music clinic at Pius X High School in Lincoln. Central Catholic Choral Group, under the direction of Sister Paulette, C.S.J., is performing in this picture. Kenneth Moore is accompanying the group.

Joan McDermott, Jean Maddox, Joyce Harders, Cathie Tibbs, Pat Ruzicka, Pat Carraher and Pat Placke are busy preparing a copy for a New Year edition of The Lance. The paper was a source of enjoyment for the entire student body and faculty.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT
HIGHLIGHT FOR JUNIORS

County Government Officers leave to take over new positions for a day. Each year the student body elects students to be officers in the government of the county. This gives the students a closer look at our government and how it operates.

Father Byrne Conducts Retreat

"Your every act is eternally important. The Cause of Christ is in your hands," Father Byrne told the students during retreat.

Realizing the necessity of spiritual guidance, a three day retreat is held annually at Central. It brings a timely pause in the scholastic routine, a time for inner peace and spiritual development.

Father Byrne has an informal chat with Jerry Studnicka and Sandra Trentman.

Every Tuesday and Friday of the school year students of Central had a opportunity for Mass and Communion in the Chapel. The following said Mass on these days: Bishop Paschang, Monsignor Hayden, Fathers Naughtin, Snyder, Nekoliczak and O'Dowd.

Tom Shandera, a very faithful altar boy, served Mass every Tuesday and Friday.

King and Queen of Sports

On the night of February 14, Queen Kay Sorahan and King Francis McNelis (picture 1.) walked down the white carpeted aisle to put the finishing touches on the basketball season of '61.

The Royal Couple and their Court (below) danced to sweet strains of music. (bottom)

The highlight of the evening came for Kay and Francis when they were crowned Queen and King by Coach Ley. (bottom right.)

Amid soft lights and dreamy music CCH couples helped celebrate the King and Queen's coronation.

Ord Invitational
Tournament

Sports play a part in the life of every student. Whether it is in football or basketball, the boys do their best and the student body is there backing them up. Football, basketball, and track all help to boost the school spirit at Central.

Moreover, sports encourages fair play and a spirit of co-operation between the players and the students. Sports are needed to round out the individual and help him to become a good citizen.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club backed the cheerleaders in boosting the school morale at pep rallies and all football and basketball games during the school year.

The Club strives to improve school spirit and maintain good sportsmanship by promoting attendance at sport activities and sponsoring pep rallies.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Displaying tremendous school spirit and example are the cheerleaders: PAT CORRIGAN, JOAN McDERMOTT, ROSE MARY ROCK, JENNIFER RIESE, MARLENE JANKY AND GERRI TIPTON.

They did a splendid job of cheering the team on to victory and also of keeping the spirits of team and followers when victory was not ours! They sacrificed much time and effort and are to be commended for a job well done.

Courage and sportsmanship were key-words for the '60 and '61 Central Catholic basketball teams. Under their coaches, Mr. Ley and Mr. Waller, the Crusaders looked forward to each game with high hope and spirits. Every Central High School Student could be proud of the spirit of sportsmanship which they displayed.

"64" a pal

Doug,

I really don't know where to begin. We've done enough together to write a whole book. I can truthfully say I will always treasure your friendship more than all the satins and jewels in the world; and you know how I love clothes and jewelry. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the good times you made possible for me!

I know that you will try your best in whatever you choose to do in the future, and may God lend you a helping hand.

You will probably always remember me as a scatterbrained nut; that's usually the way I act, but I really do act like I have some sense part of the time. I don't care how you remember me, but do remember that you are free to call on me if there's ever anything I can help you do.

I still think you should take me with you to one of your swinging parties! Once would probably be enough. Ha! Be Good!

a friend always,

Connie
